

DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD OF NIAGARA
Achieving Success Together

PARLIAMENT OAK SCHOOL PRIDE - OPPORTUNITY - SUCCESS

Volume 1, Issue 2

September 2008

---

EARLY RELEASE DAY

Monday, September 15, 2008.

Dismissal for Grades 1-8 who walk, ride the bus or are being picked up is 11:55 a.m. The bus will leave the school at 12:15 p.m.

THERE IS NO BUS TRANSPORTATION HOME FOR JK/SK STUDENTS and they will be dismissed at their regular time.

Teachers will be working together on School Growth Planning. We will look at the current achievement of students and begin to plan strategies for improvement. The Early Release Day gives teachers the opportunity to collaborate and share ideas on how to assist students in being as successful as they can be in all areas of school life.

OPEN HOUSE HAS BEEN CHANGED TO
SEPTEMBER 22nd

Due to increased enrollment in our school, we will be reorganizing our JK/SK into 2 a.m. classes. Mrs. Inglis will return to JK/SK and we will hire a new staff member to work with Mrs. Hamdani in Grade 4. In order for parents to be able to meet and greet new staff, we will postpone our Open House to Monday, September 22nd.

TERRY FOX WALK

All students will have the opportunity to participate in our Terry Fox Walk on Friday, September 26th following the Celebration Assembly.

A $2 donation per student will be donated to the Terry Fox Foundation.

Grade 7/8 students will participate in the Terry Fox Walk at Niagara District Secondary School.

Voice Lessons at Parliament Oak

Lisa Brillion will be available one morning per week to teach voice lessons for $24 for a 30 minute lesson. Contact Lisa at 905 262 4610
