

SILENT AUCTION/TRIVIA NIGHT

The big night is fast approaching! If you are planning on attending, we urge you to get your tickets ASAP. The deadline for purchasing tickets is Wednesday November 11th and tickets will not be sold at the door.

Most of the class theme baskets are doing great. We thank those of you who have made a donation and ask others to please donate an item as soon as you can as we need time to put the baskets together. A pizza party will be given to the class whose basket(s) raise the most money. Donations for the cake auction are being accepting to Ms. Whitesell until tomorrow.

Donations of auction items have been slow to come in. This is a big part of this fundraiser. Without auction items, our chance of meeting our goal is slim. Please remember that funds raised are to benefit all of our children. Without fundraising, they would not have the benefit of many things in their classrooms that enhance their education.

Here are some of the items that will be up for auction: Gift certificates to a variety of local restaurants, grocery store gift certificates, framed print from Framing and Art on Lake St., photography sitting with Robert Nowell, gift baskets,

We have received a very special donation this year. If you are planning or thinking about a trip to the Orlando area, the Minniti family is graciously donating a week at their condo on Florida. Here is a bit of information you might want to know ahead of time so you can come prepared to put your bid in on this fantastic opportunity.

- It is 15 minutes from Disney
- Sleeps 8 people
- There are weeks available in January and April
- You can visit their website at www.regalpalms.ca for more photos. Click on FAQ for a link to their email with any questions you may have
- A week rents from between $800-900 so the starting bid on this item at the auction will be $200
