

PRESS RELEASE – October 31, 2007

Neil Diamond Comes To Niagara

Well, at least a likeness of! Tom Sadge, a Pittsburgh native, is a celebrity impersonator who performs as a Neil Diamond's look-alike and sound-alike. This internationally acclaimed entertainer has performed at thousands of personal, private, casino and corporate events. Tom is best known for his extreme likeness of Neil Diamond and had actually played Diamond in his biographical documentary. Most importantly, Tom has been invited for six straight years to perform at Diamond's infamous Chicago birthday parties every January. Tom also enjoys smaller event bookings, especially when it's for good causes, like supporting children.

Tom can be seen at the White Ice Winter Gala held Friday, November 23, 2007 at John-Michael's Banquet and Conference Centre in Thorold. All proceeds from this inaugural event go towards supporting educational opportunities for students of the District School Board of Niagara (DSBN). A variety of entertainment also includes a vignette from the 2007 Niagara production of Disney's Beauty and the Beast and musical presentations from some highly talented DSBN students. With a multi-course meal, an open premium bar, silent auction, raffles and dancing all night, this will be an evening of philanthropy and celebration.

It's all about the kids! "The Education Foundation of Niagara (EFN) works hard for the children and for the community and we are very excited to include the Teachers Credit Union as the presenting sponsor", says Julie Densham, Executive Director. "Just by coming to the event you will see it only takes a little to make a difference", adds Densham.

Tickets are $150 and can be purchased by calling 905-641-2929, ext. 4107. For more information visit the website at www.efnonline.ca.
